Notice to the Democrats of Mason County.

There will be a mass convention held at Maysville court house Saturday, Sept. 13th, at 2 o'clock p. m., for choosing delegates to the Congressional convention which meets at Catlettsburg, Sept. 16th.

THOS. J. CHENOWETH,
Chairman Executive Committee.

VERMONT and Nevada make a poor showing in the present census. Their population is less than it was ten years ago.

DEMOCRATS gained twelve members of the Legislature at the Maine election this week. We are thankful for small favors in Blaine's and Reed's State.

GREEN KELLARS says his defeat at Frankfort for Assistant Secretary of the Constitutional Convention was accomplished only by means of a shabby trick. It looks that way, but "if you cast yourself into political strife and get hit with a political brick, you'll show your good sense by holding your tongue and never once making a kick."

THERE is an interesting political fight in progress in Kansas. The re-submissionist Republicans and the Democrats united on a State ticket in opposition to the regular Republicans, and the Farmers' Alliance is in the field to help make things lively. Republicans need not be surprised if they hear something "drap" in Ingalls' State at the next election.

BINDING twine and cotton bagging are manufactured from the same material. One is just as necessary to the wheat growers of the West and North as the others is to the cotton growers of the South. What excuse then can the Republican Senators give for removing the duty from twine and keeping the tax on bagging? None whatever that is at all justifiable. They are simply a lot of miserable sectionalists and partisans who voted to oppress the South and at the same time curry favor with the farmers of the West and North.

OREGON made such a big kick about her recent census that she was granted a recount. The enumerators are now at work. The recount in Portland and in Multnomah County shows an increase of 12,815; the true population being ascertained to be 75,257, instead of 62,442, as first reported. This is a striking instance showing what a miserable botch Superintendent Porter and his enumerators have made of the census.

Attention was called to the shortage in Oregon by the fact that according to the votes cast at the June election the population of the State should be 375,000, while the census made it only 305,000. The gain by a recount in the principal city indicates a population of the whole State of 375,000, and the correctness of the accepted ratio of votes to population is sustained. According to this ratio of votes to population Maysville has over 8,000 inhabitants, but the census fixes the number at less than 7,000 in the city proper.

The Chicago Tribune is one Republican journal that admits the injustice done the Southern farmers by the United States Senate when it refused to remove the duty from cotton bagging, after giving the Western and Northern farmers free binding twine. Says the Tribune:

"The manufacture of cotton bagging is controlled by a grasping, greedy trust, like that of binding twine. The syndicate which manufactures it has been merciless in its exactions. It has oppressed the great Southern industry and has leveled high toll on the colored Republicans who raise the cotton on shares as well as the white Democrat who owns the land. The monopoly which has done these things should have been dealt a blow because it is a trust, especially when it was in the power of the Western Republicans at one and the same time to show that they did not wish the bill should contain any discriminations against Southern products if they could help it and also to reciprocate the courtesy of the Southern Senators in voting to help the Western farmers against the binding-twine monopoly. The Southern Senators were perfectly justified in saying that they considered the vote an unfair discrimination against the Southern section; that 'there was no argument for the removal of the duty on one which did not apply to the other,' and that 'it was astonishing to them that Western Republican Senators should vote against the one and for the other.'"

A Chicago man who had been appointed receiver went to a lawyer and asked: "Out of $20,000 passing through his hands how much ought a receiver to profit?" "Well, about $19,000," was the reply. "Only $19,000," he exclaimed. "Who is to get the other $1,000, I'd like to know?"—Texas Sittings.

The Constitutional Convention.

Yesterday, the convention ordered the State Auditor to report the amount of indebtedness of each county, town and city, and the form of debt, whether bonded or otherwise, and for what incurred, the salaries paid to judges and other officials, the number of cases pending in the Court of Appeals, the amount paid to witnesses and other information bearing upon contemplated reforms.

It is thought the passage of the resolution indicated an almost unanimous resolve to take from counties and municipal corporations the right to create bonded debts or tax themselves beyond a prescribed limit, and to make radical changes in the judicial system.

Curtis F. Burnam, Republican, of Richmond, offered a resolution striking from the Constitution the word "white" and the several slave causes. The convention ordered the resolutions printed.

The Committee on Rules made its report, and there was quite a discussion as to its disposition. Some wanted consideration of the report made a special order for some future day. The Louisville Times' correspondent says: "Mr. Whitaker, of Mason, had the right idea of expedition and moved to adopt all the report as a whole and at once, but was ruled out of order." The report was finally ordered printed and recommitted. To facilitate the business of the convention, twenty-one standing committees, to be appointed by the President, were decided upon by the committee.

"Some of the minor regulations for the order of business differ from the rules of the convention of 1849," says the Times' correspondent. "In the matter of appeals from the decisions of the chair two persons instead of one are necessary to demand the appeal. Mr. Knott, who thinks the privilege of appeal one of the most important allowed the Legislature, State or National, wanted the rule made that any one man could ask an appeal, but he was overruled in the committee by the majority, who thought that the appealing delegate should have at least a second. When it comes to the order of business, proper, two-thirds of the whole number of delegates constitute a quorum, but ten members may adjourn from day to day or for a term of days not exceeding five. The reports of the standing committees are to take precedence of everything else in the order of business, except petitions, and when they have been called motions and resolutions will be in order, unless superseded by special orders."

Two Hurt.

A report was current yesterday at noon that a terrible wreck occurred on the C. & O. at Russell yesterday morning. It was said that fifty people had been killed or injured. The truth of the matter is, that no one was killed and only two were injured.

The Daily Irontonian says No. 1, the westbound fast express, was a little behind yesterday morning, and a freight was sent out from Ashland on the passenger's time with instructions to switch in at Russell and allow the passenger to pass. No. 1 came down slowly looking for the train in front and not seeing it supposed the order had been obeyed and the freight had side-tracked. Just as the curve, at the upper end of the Russell yards, was turned the foreman exclaimed "there are her lights, she is standing still!" and the next instant the crash came. Conductor Brown of the freight train has a broken arm in memory of the occasion and the fireman has a slightly scratched face.

One engine was damaged and the caboose and a coffee car of the freight were demolished.

THE Democrats of Adams County, Ohio, have nominated the following ticket:

Auditor—H. J. Thomas.
Probate Judge—Henry Scott.
Prosecuting Attorney—C. F. Wikoff.
Commissioner—P. N. Hughes.
Infirmary Director—Wm. Bill.
County Surveyor—A. V. Hutson.

The Railway.

The new combined passenger and express coach for the C. & S. E. reached here yesterday over the C. & O. and was taken out to Johnson in the afternoon.

The C. & O.'s loss by the wreck at Sony Point a few days ago is placed at $30,000. The Dove News says: "The accident was caused by Dixon not obeying the orders of the flagman of the work train. He probably forgot the train was on the main line. The railroad company has fully exonerated Conductor Benburger and Engineer Conway, who were in charge of the work train, from all blame for the accident. Conductor Watts, who had charge of the wrecked train has been discharged from the service of the company. Watts is the same conductor whose train was wrecked at Bull Creek not long since."

Bennett as associate editor. In addition to his work on the State he has at times represented in Virginia several of the great northern and western dailies. Mr. Ryan's success in journalism is gratifying to his many friends, especially here at his old home.

SOME MINER MATTERS.

Not minor matters, mark you.
The matters we have in view are far from being minor or unimportant. But of course you understand the point.

Miner Matters Are Shoes.

Nobody in Maysville can think of MINER without thinking of Shoes. What we want is that nobody in Maysville think of Shoes without thinking of MINER. We want them to think Miner Sells Good Shoes.

From Foreign Climes.

The Great Strike at Southampton Settled.

A SMALL INCREASE GRANTED.

The Men Will Return to Work and Receive a Penny an Hour More Than Before the Strike—Why the Strike Was a Failure—Other Foreign Happenings.

SOUTHAMPTON, Sept. 12.—At a conference of strikers yesterday, it was decided to return to work on the concession offered a fortnight ago. The decision was fiercely opposed by a strong minority. The concession means an increase of a penny an hour. The question of employing non-union men is left open.

McCarthy, the leader, in an interview said that the fact of the strike having been begun without obtaining authority from the dockmen's executive at London, precluded the hope of success. These men had been warned against precipitate action, but has chosen to disregard the advice. McCarthy strongly condemned the local union for having forced a strike under such circumstances.

Attempted Assassination.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 12.—A young Armenian approached Tadjad Oscanian, the Armenian bishop, as the latter was leaving the church yesterday, and uttering the cry of "traitor," attempted to kill the bishop with a knife, but only succeeded in wounding him in the arm.

The bishop gave evidence against the prisoner charged with having been implicated in the recent demonstrations against the Armenian patriarch in the cathedral in the Kroom Capo quarter of Constantinople, and it is supposed that the attack was prompted by a spirit of revenge for his not refusing to testify.

An Armenian Assassin.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 12.—As the Armenian bishop, Tadjad Oscanian, was leaving church Wednesday, a young Armenian approached him, and uttering the cry of "traitor," tried to kill him with a knife, but only succeeded in wounding him in the arm. The attack is supposed to have been prompted by a desire for revenge upon the bishop for evidence given by him against the prisoners charged with having been implicated in the recent demonstrations against the Armenian patriarch in the cathedral in the Kroomkapo quarter of Constantinople.

Quieter at Southampton.

SOUTHAMPTON, Sept. 12.—The strikers here are more quiet and no riotous demonstrations have been made. The police authorities have issued an order forbidding the holding of processions, and the leaders of the strikers have promised to see that it is obeyed. The mail steamer La Plata sailed yesterday for the river Plata. A fresh crew were engaged to take the place of the old hands who went out with the strikers.

A Revolt in Switzerland.

GENEVA, Sept. 12.—A revolt has occurred in the canton of Ticino. One member of the cantonal government was shot with a revolver, three other members were made prisoners, and the remaining officials fled. The Swiss Federal council have sent two battalions of troops to suppress the uprising. The trouble grew out of a revision of the constitution. Most of the inhabitants of the canton are Italian Catholics.

Battle in Morocco.

TANGIER, Sept. 12.—The forces of the Sultan of Morocco have had a battle with the Zennours, in which the latter were defeated with heavy loss in killed and wounded. The Zennours were taken by surprise and completely routed. Their famous chief, Chacramon, was captured by the Sultan's troops.

Fall of an Empress.

METHODISTS IN CANADA.

The General Conference Has Important Work Before It.

MONTREAL, Sept. 12.—The third general conference of the Methodist church of Canada opened Wednesday in the St. James church. It is the first conference since the general union in 1886, and the only general conference held here during twelve years. There are over 500 delegates present. Wednesday's session was taken up with hearing the address of Rev. Dr. Carman, general superintendent of the Methodist church in Canada.

Among the most important questions to be discussed are the advisability of establishing a Methodist sisterhood and of petitioning parliament as regards the vexed question of clerical precedence. In the memorial which it is proposed to send, it is stated that the North American act recognizes the equality of all religious bodies before the law, but that the order of precedence at dominion and provincial receptions ignores the very existence of their church and other non-Episcopal churches, representing the majority of this dominion. They protest against such offensive discrimination against more than one-half of the population.

The British Columbian conference take a bold step ahead in the women's rights movement and will present to the general body a memorial asking for the admission of women to a place on church courts. Another memorial from the Pacific concerns itself with the posture at "the Lord's table" and requests the general conference to amend the ritual so that the posture of the communicant shall be that of sitting instead of kneeling, as more in harmony with the origin and spirit of the institution. Manitoba memorializes the legislative body to extend the pastorate to five years. They also ask that they be allowed to elect a member of the central board of missions.

OUR FLAG HAULED DOWN,

But It Is Immediately Restored on the Toronto Exposition Building.

TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 12.—Col. Gray, who is brigade major of the Canadian militia, on Tuesday ordered to be taken down a handsome United States flag which was fluttering from one end of the g. and stand at the industrial exhibition. The act was greeted with mingled cheers and hisses. Manager Hill, of the exhibition, ordered the flag put back, and yesterday morning "Old Glory" was again in place.

Maj. Gray angrily ordered the "flag of an alien people" to be torn from the flag-staff. This Manager Hill refused to do, saying it was only a graceful compliment to the American people who every year visit the exhibition in large numbers. The board of directors will to-morrow pass upon the question.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Proceedings of the Senate and House. Other Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The senate after the transaction of some routine business yesterday, took up the conference report on the land grant forfeiture bill. Mr. Gorman took the floor and spoke four hours in opposition to the report, but had not finished when the senate adjourned.

The house for lack of a quorum, showed by the first roll call, adjourned at 12:35 without making any progress whatever with the Langton-Venable contested election case.

Cotton Exports.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—Cotton exports from the United States during the past month of August aggregated 62,203 bales, valued at $3,411,455, against 68,608 bales valued at $3,517,853 in August, 1884. ### Talmage Is Happy.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Dr. Talmage has secured the money with which to rebuild the Brooklyn Tabernacle, and the work of construction will shortly be begun. Russell Sage has advanced $125,000 for the period of one year at 6 per cent. interest. The land cost $105,000 and has been wholly paid for. Besides this collateral, Dr. Talmage insures his life for $25,000 as part payment. The cost of the new church is estimated at $50,000, and with its new organ and other incidental expenses, the entire cost including the land, will reach $50,000.

Election in Wyoming.

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 12.—A Cheyenne, Wy., special to The Tribune says: It is almost impossible to tell the result of the election here yesterday. Some precincts are over one hundred miles from the county seats. Both parties claim the election, the Republicans by 1,500 and the Democrats by about 1,000. This is on the head of the tick. It is thought the Republicans stand a better chance of securing the legislature than the governorship.

How the Election Went.

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 12.—The count of the ballots in Wednesday's election has been completed. Thomas Coggeshall, Republican, is elected mayor by 108 majority. The Republicans also elect five out of six aldermen; ten out of fifteen councilmen and three out of four school committeemen. There is no election for one councilman. ### A Sailor Suicides.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Lars P. Peterson, aged 35 years, a Swedish sailor on board the United States man-of-war Yantic, lying at the Brooklyn navy yard, committed suicide this morning by cutting his throat with a knife. He is said to have over-indulged in liquor, which is believed to have caused insanity.

Sept in a Railroad Bridge.

BOSTON, Sept. 12.—James W. Clayford, aged 17, and William Bumpus, aged 16, who left Philadelphia to visit Clayford's brother and sister in the neighborhood of Boston, walked and rode as far as Yantic, Conn., where on Wednesday night they lay down on a covered bridge and fell asleep. At 2 a. m., yesterday a passing train struck Clayford, fracturing his skull. Bumpus escaped injury. The boys were brought here and Clayford was taken to the Massachusetts general hospital, where he now lies in a critical condition.

All Three Dead.

DUBUQUE, Iowa, Sept. 12.—Last evening Matt Wagner, Nic. Steinmiz and Peter Maas left this city for the purpose of seeking work at Meneminee, a few miles south of East Dubuque. This morning their dead bodies were found about four miles down the track and lying close to it. The supposition is that they were struck by the Illinois Central train which left here last evening. They were under the influence of liquor when they started on their fatal journey.
